SUMMER camp

Write a magical tale

This summer, let your imagination go on an epic journey to a majestic place where unicorns are REAL, dogs rule and even dragons have a soft side. Have a go at writing your own story, decorating a shield and finding a way through our mythical maze.

My magical tale

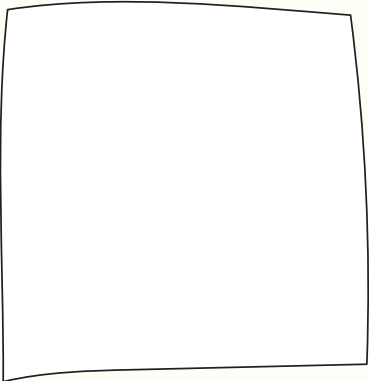

Queen Sprout

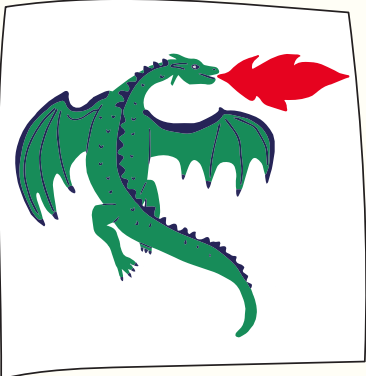

Try writing your own story about Queen Sprout, our in-house dog, who rules Mini Boden. A story should have a beginning, a middle and an end. We've added in the middle already.

Beginning

How does Queen Sprout start her day in the royal castle?

Middle

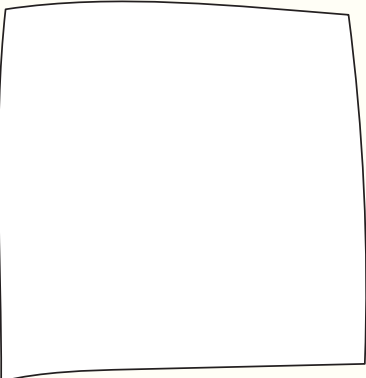

Queen Sprout came across a friendly dragon.

The dragon was tired of living in a hard, rocky cave and wanted somewhere new to live.

Queen Sprout offered the dragon a home in her castle.

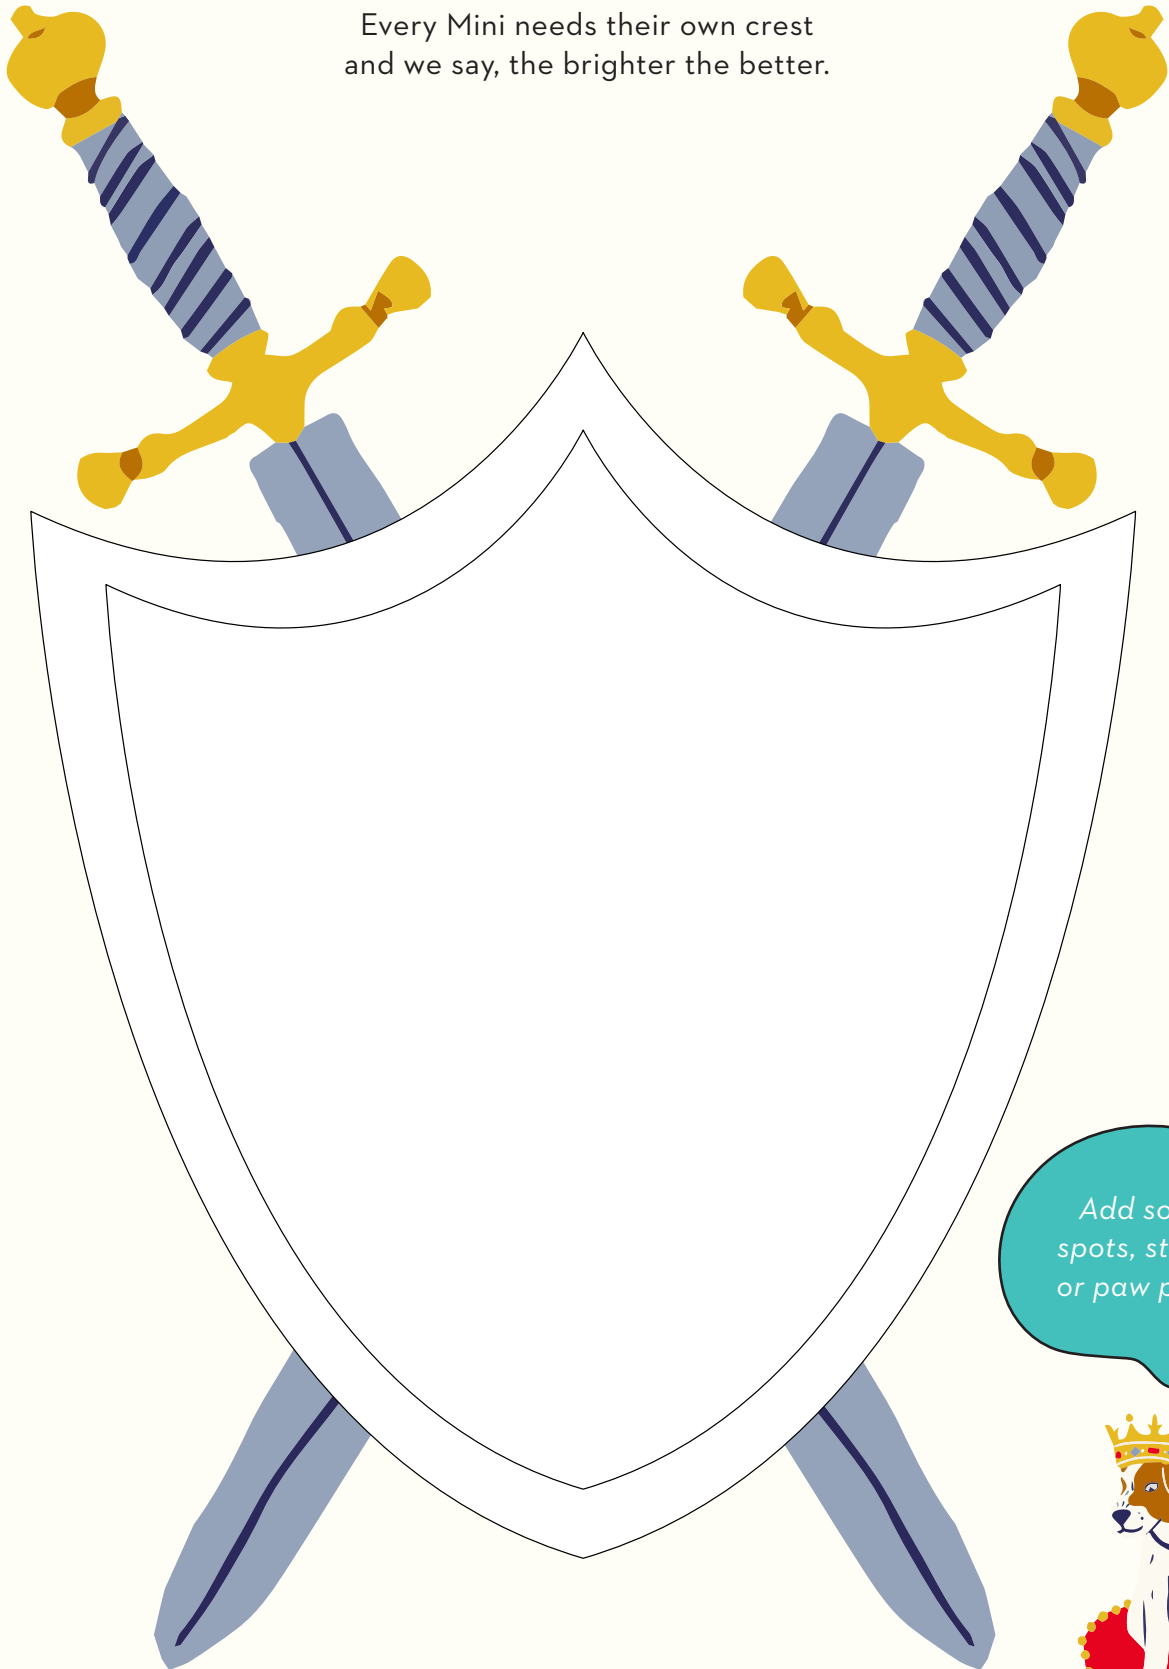

Ending

What happened next? Maybe they became the best of pals?

Decorate your shield

Every Mini needs their own crest and we say, the brighter the better.

Add some spots, stripes
or paw prints

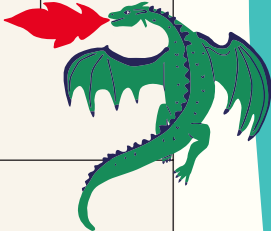

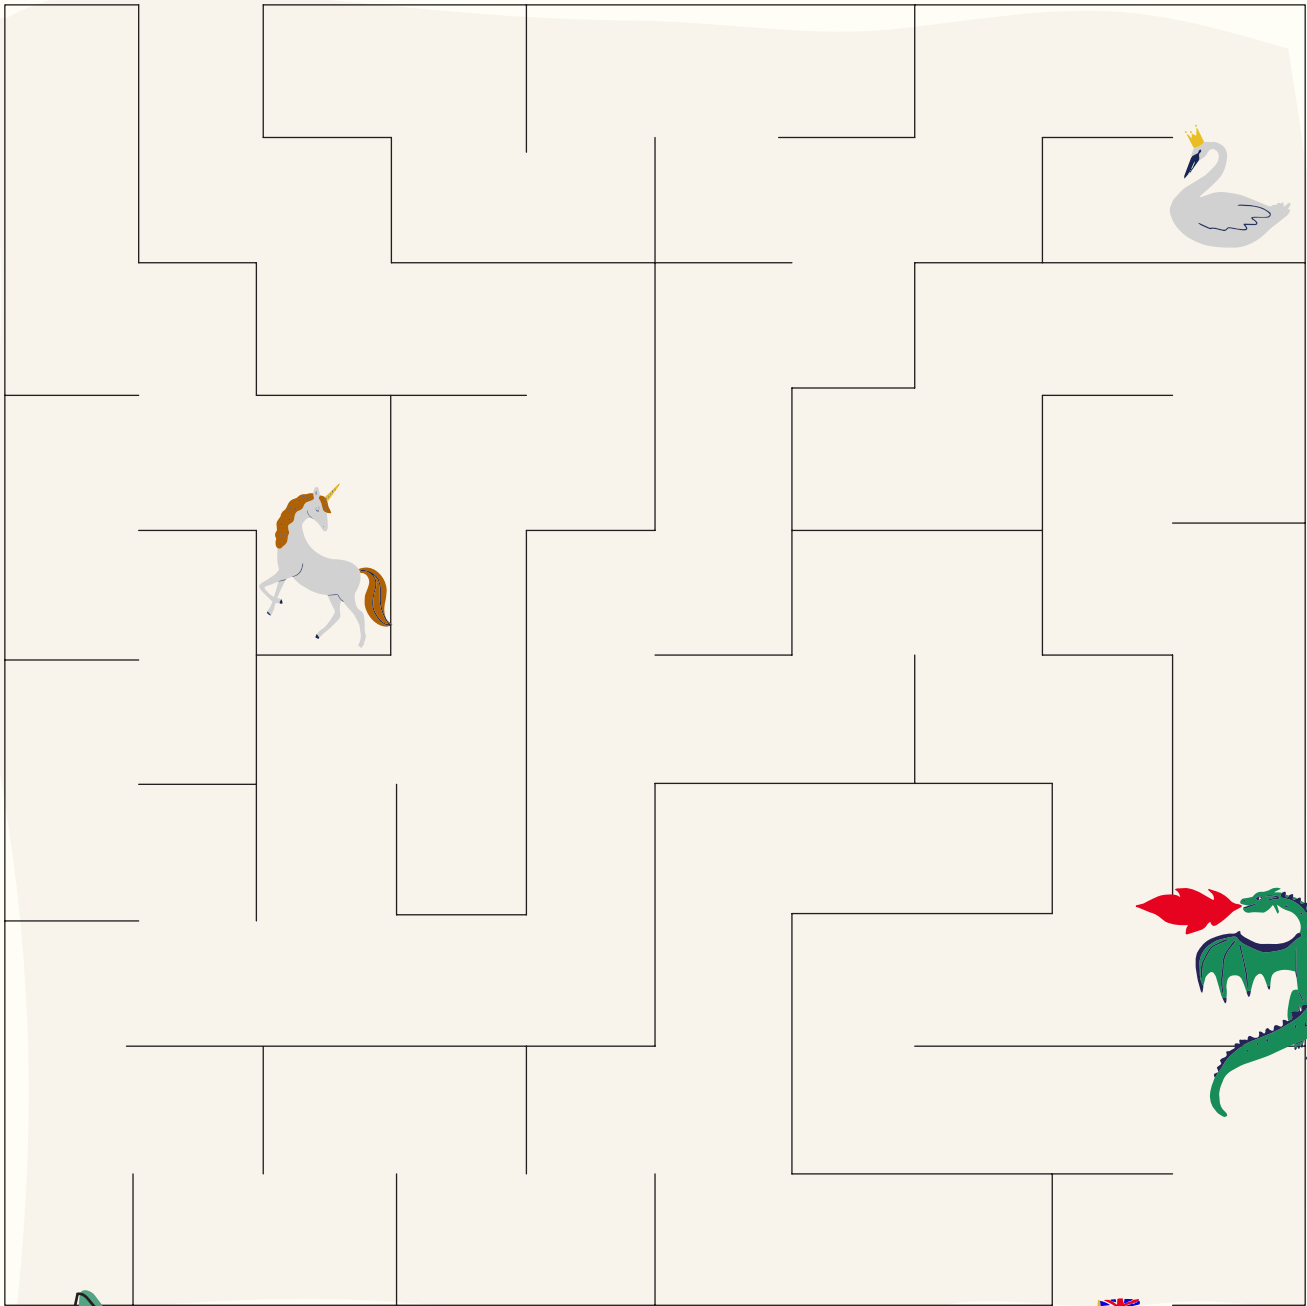

The enchanted maze

Start here

Help Queen Sprout find her way back home to the royal castle. Watch out for the fire-breathing dragon.

The end
